5. Membership of Club

- (1) A person who applies and is approved for membership in accordance with this rule is eligible to be a member of the Club on payment of the entrance fee and the annual subscription specified in rule 32.
- (2) A person is not to be admitted as a member unless –
 - (a) the person applies for membership in accordance with subrule (3); and
 - (b) the person is approved for membership by the committee.
- (3) An application by a person for membership is to be –
 - (a) made in writing; and
 - (b) accompanied by two written references or the names and contact details of two referees; and
 - (c) signed by the applicant and stating that they –
 - (i) wish to become a member of the Club; and
 - (ii) support the purposes of the Club; and
 - (iii) agree to comply with these rules and any by-laws made thereunder; and
 - (d) accompanied by payment of the entrance fee and the annual subscription for the category of membership being applied for; and
 - (e) lodged with the secretary.
- (4) As soon as practicable after the receipt of an application, the secretary is to –
 - (a) refer the application to a subcommittee comprising the flag officers, which must review the details provided by the applicant and make a written recommendation to the secretary within 10 days whether to accept or reject the application; and
 - (b) give notice to all members eligible to vote of the application and of the name of the applicant and of the provisions of subrule (6).
- (5) For the purpose of making a recommendation under subrule (4)(a) the subcommittee may request the applicant attend for an interview.
- (6) Within 10 days of the date of the notice given under subrule (4)(b) any financial member eligible to vote may by notice in writing lodged with the secretary object to the admission of the person as a member giving reasons for objection.
- (7) The secretary is to refer the application to the committee, which must decide by resolution whether to accept or reject the application at the next meeting of the committee held at least 14 days after receipt of the application under subrule (3)(e), at which time the secretary is to make available the recommendation made under subrule (4)(a) and all, if any, objections received under subrule (6) but without identifying the member who made the objection.
- (8) The secretary must notify the applicant in writing of the committee's decision as soon as practicable after the decision is made.

- (9) If an application is rejected by the committee, it must return any money accompanying the application to the applicant.
- (10) No reason need be given for the rejection of a application, unless requested in writing by the applicant in which case no information will be given that may identify any member who made an objection under subrule (6).
- (11) If an application is approved by the committee, the secretary is to enter the applicant in the register of members in accordance with subrule (15).
- (12) A member may resign by serving on the secretary a written notice of resignation.
- (13) On receipt of a notice from a member under subrule (12), the secretary is to remove the name of the member from the register of members.
- (14) A person –
 - (a) becomes a member when their name is entered in the register of members; and
 - (b) ceases to be a member when their name is removed from the register of members under subrule (13) or rule 32(7).
- (15) The secretary is to maintain, or establish and maintain, a register of members containing –
 - (a) the name of each member and the date on which they became a member; and
 - (b) the member's postal or residential address or address of business or employment; and
 - (c) an email address, if any, that the member has nominated as the email address to which notices from the Club may be sent; and
 - (d) the name or identifying description of every Adult member's boat or boats; and
 - (e) the name of each person who has ceased to be a member and the date on which the person ceased to be a member.

5A. Categories of membership

- (1) The categories of membership of the Club are –
 - (a) Adult; being a person over the age of 18 years who is the owner, part-owner, lessee or part-lessee of a boat. An Adult member may hold office in the Club, vote at general meetings and enjoy all the rights and privileges which attach to membership of the Club;
 - (b) Junior; being a person under the age of 18 years. A Junior member may not hold office in the Club nor vote at general meetings, but may enjoy all the rights and privileges which attach to membership of the Club;
 - (c) Social; being a person over the age of 18 years who is not the owner, part-owner, lessee or part-lessee of a boat. A Social member may not hold office in the Club nor vote at general meetings, but may enjoy club rooms privileges only;
 - (d) Life; being an Adult member who, for outstanding services rendered to the Club or for other sufficient reason, is nominated by the committee and elected a Life member at a general meeting, provided that such nomination has been included in the notice of meeting. A Life member retains all the rights and privileges which attach to an Adult member; and
 - (e) Honorary; being a visiting member of another boat or sailing club. An Honorary member may not hold office in the Club nor vote at general meetings, but may enjoy all the rights and privileges which attach to membership of the Club. A person may be an Honorary member for no more than one month.

- (2) (a) A person who applies for membership in accordance with rule 5 and who has paid the entrance fee and the annual subscription specified in rule 32, may, before the application for membership is approved by the committee in accordance with rule 5(2)(b) be deemed a Provisional member if so recommended by the subcommittee established under rule 5(4)(a).
- (b) A Provisional member may enjoy all the rights and privileges which attach to the category of membership of the Club for which they are nominated, except that a Provisional member may not hold office in the Club nor vote at general meetings.

6. Liability of members

- (1) Any right, privilege or obligation of a person as a member –
 - (a) is not capable of being transferred to another person; and
 - (b) terminates when the person ceases to be a member, except the obligation for payment of any monies due or payable by the member to the Club.
- (2) If the Club is wound up, each person who was, immediately before the Club is wound up, a member, and each person who was a member within the period of 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the winding-up, is liable to contribute –
 - (a) to the assets of the Club for payment of the liabilities of the Club; and
 - (b) for the costs, charges and expenses of the winding-up; and
 - (c) for the adjustment of the rights of the contributors among themselves.
- (3) Any liability under subrule (2) is not to exceed $10.
- (4) Despite subrule (2), a former member is not liable to contribute under that subrule in respect of any liability of the Club incurred after they ceased to be a member.

7. Income and property of Club

- (1) The income and property of the Club is to be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Club.
- (2) No portion of the income or property of the Club is to be paid or transferred to any member unless the payment or transfer is made in accordance with this rule.
- (3) The Club may –
 - (a) pay a person or member –
 - (i) remuneration in return for services rendered to the Club, or for goods supplied to the Club, in the ordinary course of business of the person or member; or
 - (ii) remuneration that constitutes a reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the person or member for any of the objects or purposes of the Club; or
 - (iii) interest at a rate not exceeding 7.25% on money lent to the Club by the person or member; or
 - (iv) a reasonable amount by way of rent for premises, or a part of premises, let to the Club by the person or member; and
 - (b) pay a member of the committee remuneration in return for carrying out the functions of a member of the committee; and
 - (c) pay a member of a subcommittee remuneration in return for carrying out the functions of a member of the subcommittee; and

- (d) if so requested by or on behalf of any other association, organisation or body, appoint or nominate a member to an office in that other association, organisation or body.
- (4) Despite subrule (3)(a), (b) and (c), the Club is not to pay a person any amount under that subrule unless the Club or committee has first approved that payment.
- (5) Despite subrule (3)(d), the Club is not to appoint or nominate a member under that subrule to an office in respect of which remuneration is payable unless the Club or committee has first approved –
 - (a) that appointment or nomination; and
 - (b) the receipt of that remuneration by that member.

8. Accounts of receipts and expenditure

- (1) True accounts are to be kept of the following:
 - (a) each receipt and payment of money by the Club and the matter in respect of which the money was received or paid;
 - (b) each asset and liability of the Club.
- (2) The accounts are to be open to inspection by the members of the Club at any reasonable time, and in any reasonable manner, determined by the committee.
- (3) The treasurer of the Club is to keep all accounting books, and general records and records of receipts and payments, connected with the business of the Club in the form and manner the committee determines.
- (4) The accounts, books and records are to be kept at the Club's office or at any other place the committee determines.

9. Banking and finance

- (1) On behalf of the Club, the treasurer of the Club is to –
 - (a) receive any money paid to the Club; and
 - (b) immediately after receiving the money, issue an official receipt in respect of the money; and
 - (c) cause the money to be paid into the account opened under subrule (2) as soon as practicable after it is received.
- (2) The committee is to open with an authorised deposit-taking institution an account in the name of the Club.
- (3) The committee may –
 - (a) receive from an authorised deposit-taking institution a cheque drawn by the Club on any of the Club's accounts with the authorised deposit-taking institution; and
 - (b) release or indemnify the authorised deposit-taking institution from or against any claim, or action or other proceeding, arising directly or indirectly out of the drawing of that cheque.
- (4) Except with the authority of the committee, a payment of an amount exceeding $100 is not to be made from the funds of the Club other than –
 - (a) by cheque drawn on the Club's account; or
 - (b) by the electronic transfer of funds from the Club's account to another account at an authorised deposit-taking institution.

- (5) The committee may provide the treasurer of the Club with an amount of money to meet urgent expenditure, subject to any conditions the committee may impose in relation to the expenditure.
- (6) A cheque is not to be drawn on the Club's account, and an amount is not to be electronically transferred from the Club's account to another account at an authorised deposit-taking institution, except for the purpose of making a payment that has been authorised by the committee. The committee may authorise the making of a class of payment.
- (7) A cheque, draft, bill of exchange, promissory note or other negotiable instrument is to be –
 - (a) signed by the treasurer of the Club or, in the treasurer's absence, by any other member, or members, of the executive the committee nominates for that purpose; and
 - (b) countersigned by the secretary.
- (8) An electronic transfer of an amount from the Club's account to another account at an authorised deposit-taking institution –
 - (a) may only be authorised by the treasurer of the Club or, in the treasurer's absence, by any other member, or members, of the executive the committee nominates for that purpose; and
 - (b) may only be authorised by a person referred to in paragraph (a) if the authorisation has been approved by the secretary.

10. Auditor

- (1) At each annual general meeting, the members of the Club present at the meeting are to appoint a person as the auditor of the Club.
- (2) If an auditor is not appointed at an annual general meeting under subrule (1), the committee is to appoint a person as the auditor of the Club as soon as practicable after that annual general meeting.
- (3) The auditor is to hold office until the next annual general meeting and is eligible for re-appointment.
- (4) The auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.
- (5) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor, the committee is to appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the end of the next annual general meeting.

11. Audit of accounts

- (1) The auditor is to audit the financial affairs of the Club at least once in each financial year of the Club.
- (2) The auditor, after auditing the financial affairs of the Club for a particular financial year of the Club, is to –
 - (a) certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Club; and
 - (b) at the next annual general meeting, provide a written report to the members of the Club who are present at that meeting.
- (3) In the report and in certifying the accounts under subrule (2), the auditor is to –
 - (a) specify the information, if any, that they have required under subrule (5)(b) and obtained; and
 - (b) state whether, in their opinion, the accounts exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Club according to the information at their disposal; and

- (c) state whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Club have been observed.
- (4) The treasurer is to deliver to the auditor a list of all the accounting records, books and accounts of the Club.
- (5) The auditor may –
 - (a) have access to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Club; and
 - (b) require from any employee of, or person who has acted on behalf of, the Club any information the auditor considers necessary for the performance of their duties; and
 - (c) employ any person to assist in auditing the financial affairs of the Club; and
 - (d) examine any member of the committee, or any employee of, or person who has acted on behalf of, the Club, in relation to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Club.

12. Exemptions under the Act

- (1) For any financial year that the Club is exempt from the requirement to be audited by virtue of section 24(1B) or (1C) of the Act –
 - (a) an auditor is not required to be appointed for that financial year under rule 10 unless the Club elects to have the financial affairs of the Club for that financial year audited in accordance with the Act and these rules; and
 - (b) if an auditor is not appointed for a financial year by virtue of paragraph (a) –
 - (i) rules 10 and 11 do not apply in respect of the Club for that financial year; and
 - (ii) rule 13(5)(b), to the extent that it relates to an auditor, does not apply in respect of the annual general meeting held by the Club in respect of that financial year; and
 - (iii) rule 13(5)(d) does not apply in respect of the annual general meeting held by the Club in respect of that financial year.
- (2) For any financial year that the Club is exempt from the requirement to provide an annual return by virtue of section 24B(1B) of the Act, the committee must provide, as part of the ordinary business of the annual general meeting for that financial year, a copy of the annual financial report given under the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 of the Commonwealth in respect of that financial year.

13. Annual general meeting

- (1) The Club is to hold an annual general meeting each year.
- (2) An annual general meeting is to be held on any day (being not later than 3 months after the end of the financial year of the Club) the committee determines.
- (3) An annual general meeting is to be in addition to any other general meeting that may be held in the same year.
- (4) The notice convening an annual general meeting is to specify the purpose of the meeting.
- (5) The ordinary business of an annual general meeting is to be as follows:
 - (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting;

- (b) to receive from the committee, auditor, employees and other persons acting on behalf of the Club reports on the transactions of the Club during the last preceding financial year of the Club;
 - (c) to elect the officers of the Club and the ordinary committee members;
 - (d) to appoint the auditor and determine their remuneration;
 - (e) to determine the remuneration of employees and other persons acting on behalf of the Club; and
 - (f) if recommended by the committee, to elect the patron of the Club.
- (6) An annual general meeting may transact business of which notice is given in accordance with rule 15.
- (7) Minutes of proceedings of an annual general meeting are to be kept, in the minute book of the Club, by the secretary or, in the absence from the meeting of the secretary, by an officer of the Club who is nominated by the chairperson of the meeting.

14. Special general meetings

- (1) The committee may convene a special general meeting of the Club at any time.
- (2) The committee, on the requisition in writing of at least 10 members of the Club entitled to vote, is to convene a special general meeting of the Club.
- (3) A requisition for a special general meeting –
 - (a) is to state the objects of the meeting; and
 - (b) is to be signed by each of the requisitionists; and
 - (c) is to be deposited at the office of the Club; and
 - (d) may consist of several documents, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.
- (4) If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within 21 days after the day on which a requisition is deposited at the office of the Club, any one or more of the requisitionists may convene the meeting within 3 months after the day on which the requisition is deposited at the office of the Club.
- (5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists is to be convened in the same manner, as nearly as practicable, as the manner in which a special general meeting would be convened by the committee.
- (6) All reasonable expenses incurred by requisitionists in convening a special general meeting are to be refunded by the Club.

15. Notices of general meetings

- (1) At least 14 days before the day on which a general meeting of the Club is to be held, the secretary is to publish a notice specifying –
 - (a) the place, day and time at which the meeting is to be held; and
 - (b) the nature of the business that is to be transacted at the meeting.
- (2) A notice is published for the purposes of subrule (1) if the notice –
 - (a) is contained in an advertisement appearing in at least one newspaper circulating in Tasmania; or
 - (b) appears on a website, or at an electronic address, of the Club; or
 - (c) is sent to each member entitled to vote at –

- (i) the member's postal or residential address or address of business or employment; or
- (ii) an email address that the member has nominated as the email address to which notices from the Club may be sent; or
- (d) is given by another means, determined by the secretary, that is reasonably likely to ensure that the members of the Club entitled to vote will be notified of the notice.

15A. Proxies

- (1) The committee may determine that any member entitled to vote may appoint another member entitled to vote as their proxy to attend, speak and vote on their behalf at a general meeting.
- (2) If the committee makes a determination under subrule (1) –
 - (a) the appointment of a proxy must be in writing and signed by the member making the appointment;
 - (b) notice of a general meeting given to a member under rule 15 must state that the member may appoint another member as a proxy for the meeting;
 - (c) a form appointing a proxy must be given to the chairperson of the meeting before or at the commencement of the meeting; and
 - (d) a member must not act as proxy for more than 10% of the members of the Club entitled to vote or 10, whichever is the lesser, on any one occasion

15B. Use of technology

- (1) The committee may determine that a member not physically present at a general meeting may participate in the meeting by the use of technology that allows that member and the members present at the meeting to clearly and simultaneously communicate with each other.
- (2) A member participating in a general meeting as permitted under subrule (1) is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.

16. Business and quorum at general meetings

- (1) All business transacted at a general meeting, other than the ordinary business of an annual general meeting, is special business.
- (2) Business is not to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled to vote is present at the time when the meeting considers that business.
- (3) A quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting is the presence (in person or as allowed under rule 15A) of 10% of members entitled to vote or 10, whichever is the lesser.
- (4) If a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of a general meeting, the meeting –
 - (a) if convened on the requisition of members of the Club, is dissolved; or
 - (b) if convened by the committee, is to be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and –
 - (i) at the same place; or
 - (ii) at any other place specified by the chairperson –
 - (A) at the time of the adjournment; or
 - (B) by notice in a manner determined by the chairperson.

- (5) If at an adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

17. Chairperson at general meetings

At each general meeting of the Club, the chairperson is to be –

- (a) the commodore; or
- (b) in the absence of the commodore, the vice commodore; or
- (c) in the absence of the commodore and the vice commodore, the rear commodore; or
- (d) in the absence of the commodore and the vice commodore and the rear commodore, a member elected to preside as chairperson by the members of the Club present and entitled to vote at the general meeting.

18. Adjournment of general meetings

- (1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may adjourn the meeting with the consent of the members of the Club who are present and entitled to vote at the meeting, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- (2) If a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting is to be given in the same manner as the notice of the original meeting.
- (3) If a meeting is adjourned for less than 14 days, it is not necessary to give any notice of the adjournment or of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting.

19. Determination of questions arising at general meetings

- (1) A question arising at a general meeting of the Club is to be determined on a show of hands.
- (2) A declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been lost or carried, or been carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority, together with an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Club, is evidence of that fact unless a poll is demanded on or before that declaration.

20. Votes

- (1) On any question arising at a general meeting of the Club, a member (including the chairperson) has one vote only.
- (2) Despite subrule (1), in the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson has a second or casting vote.

21. Taking of poll

If at a general meeting a poll on any question is demanded –

- (a) the poll is to be taken at that meeting in the manner that the chairperson determines; and
- (b) the result of the poll is taken to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.

22. When poll to be taken

- (1) A poll that is demanded on the election of a chairperson, or on a question of adjournment, is to be taken immediately.
- (2) A poll that is demanded on any other question is to be taken at any time before the close of the meeting as the chairperson determines.

23. Affairs of Club to be managed by a committee

- (1) The affairs of the Club are to be managed by a committee of management constituted as provided in rule 25.

- (2) The committee –
 - (a) is to control and manage the business and affairs of the Club; and
 - (b) may exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Club, other than those powers and functions that are required by these rules to be exercised and performed by members of the Club at a general meeting; and
 - (c) has power to do anything that appears to the committee to be essential for the proper management of the business and affairs of the Club.

24. Officers of the Club

- (1) The officers of the Club are as follows:
 - (a) the commodore;
 - (b) the vice commodore;
 - (c) the rear commodore;
